

Admission Policy:

Our school is open for admissions from Nursery to Grade IX

Parents seeking admission can contact the school office between 08:00 AM to 3:00 PM on any working day.

Parents please note that the admission of the student is subject to the availability of seats and as per the criteria laid down by the School. Also note that the admission made provisionally without submission of authentic documents will be treated as cancelled if the necessary documents are not submitted within 15 days from the date of provisional admission.

For fresh admission Nursery to Std I parents must bring the original Birth Certificate issued by the municipal corporation & (Class II and above) parents must bring the original School Leaving Certificate of the child from the recognized school duly counter signed by the competent authority along with the progress report.

Physical presence of the child is compulsory at the time of Regular / Provisional Admission. Students coming from other state must bring a School Leaving Certificate & entire details of their standard previously passed and exam details.

Admission Co-coordinator talks to the parent regarding school, fees details & queries of the parents. The relevant documents are checked, if documents are up to the mark, then admission form will be issued.

When the parent submits the admission form with the relevant documents, then it is thoroughly checked & then a fee is collected.
